Motion Designer - Middleweight

WE ARE TOMMY, ARE YOU?

Are you a passionate and driven digital designer with expert motion design skills? Tommy is seeking a talented digital designer to join its international team of creatives, designers, developers and producers creating high-calibre creative work for some of the world's biggest entertainment and brand clients.

This role will contribute to motion and video pieces for social content, web experiences, OOH, and digital ad creation, delivering award-winning work for the likes of Amazon, Netflix, Tesco Mobile, William Grant, Paramount, Sony Pictures, and Warner Bros.

Tommy searches out the most talented individuals it can find, but a positive attitude and a passion for seeing great work through as part of the team are qualities on which Tommy won't compromise. The successful candidate will have a tremendous sense of pride-in-work balanced with an awareness of client and commercial needs. Ambitious, clever and self-aware; a member of the Tommy team is all of these things and more.

RESPONSIBILITIES

A Motion Designer is a vital part of the Tommy family. The Motion Designer must also be able to bring to life a range of rich experiences, from video to for social content to custom formats, OOH, games and microsites. Animation skills are key to creating beautifully crafted online experiences with high-quality assets.

Daily, you'll be expected to do the following:

- Play an active role in projects from concepting, storyboarding, designing and developing to packaging and delivery
- Ensure that motion design is considered as part of the planning and design of every non-static project undertaken at Tommy
- Design motion for sites and interactive experiences under the direction of our senior designers
- Work primarily in After Effects to create engaging, beautiful, emotive, suspenseful or hilarious video sequences as appropriate per project
- Edit video sequences when necessary
- Oversee more junior members of staff in acquiring motion design skills and creating motion design elements in their project work
- Work closely with other team members to improve your design and development skills in line with your individual goals and objectives, as agreed and in concert with Directors
