Junior Designer Job Specification

WE ARE TOMMY, ARE YOU?

Are you a talented designer and conceptual thinker looking to channel your obsession with social media into a profession?

Tommy are hiring a Junior Designer to join our close-knit and exceptionally talented team of designers, developers, and producers creating high-calibre creative digital work. This role will contribute to social content creation and more for the likes of Hollywood movie studios, entertainment, food, fashion and automotive brands.

We search out the most talented individuals we can find, but a positive attitude and a passion for seeing great work through as part of the team are qualities on which we won't compromise. The successful candidate will have a tremendous sense of pride-in-work balanced with an awareness of client and commercial needs. Ambitious, clever, and self-aware; a member of the Tommy team is all of these things and more.

This is an entry level position, with a salary of £18,000 to £22,000.

RESPONSIBILITIES

As our new Junior Designer, first and foremost you will be trained to create the most impressive social content and advertising. We also create interactive experiences, websites, and all manner of digital design. There is room to grow beyond the standard online social content creation once it's been mastered.

Daily, you'll be expected to do the following under the guidance of senior staff:

- Concept and create social media content for use across facebook, twitter, instagram, snapchat, and others
- Contribute constructively to brainstorm and idea sessions as necessary. Support creative concepting and provide validity and feasibility checks, contributing to prototyping and proof of concepts when appropriate
- Play an active role in projects from inception, scoping, estimating, planning, designing, development, testing, and delivery
- Work with other team members in to improve your design and development skills in line with your individual goals and objectives, as agreed and in concert with the Operations Director
- Creative digital online advertising formats as part of a team delivering the campaign
