Tammy Summer Internship

WE ARE TAMMY, ARE YOU?

Are you loving your creative course work, but can't visualise what a career in the creative industry would look like for you? Are you looking for diverse experience in the creative field to help you enter the industry?

If so, you might be the best person for this internship. In an effort to address gender inequality in the creative industry, we are looking for keen, talented, ambitious creative industry students to intern with our talented global team in the London office.

We have three positions available for the 6 week Tammy Summer Internship London scheme. The programme consists of a rotation of three two-week placements in each of the following departments: design, development, and production & account handling.

This is a unique opportunity for the right candidates to learn from the inside how a digital creative advertising agency works. We seek students who want to get a taste of what to expect from a future career in the digital creative industry, thereby helping to bridge the gap between the number of female students and the number of women working in the creative profession.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Daily, our Tammy interns will be expected to:

- Observe and participate in the creative and project processes in our studio
- Learn about the digital creative industry
- Complete online tutorials and training in relative software (ie Adobe Photoshop) with the mentorship of members of our design team
- Complete basic introduction to front-end programming challenges under the guidance of our dev team
- Observe digital producers as they wrestle with estimates, project plans, client amends, and the overall process of studio production and build
- Begin to develop an understanding of our brand and entertainment clients' marketing objectives, strategies, processes, and preferences as relevant to the work we propose
